

TOPIC	ISSUE No 1-23
A
Actuarial reports
General
Filing of off-date valuation reports	18
New actuary at OSFI.....	16
Data certification.....	7
Provisions for expenses.....	11
Assumed retirement age.....	9
Valuation interest rate	8
Gains and losses analysis	6
Solvency
Annual filing if ratio is less than one	12
Why they are required.....	6
Consent benefits.....	11
Actuarial Information Summary (AIS).....	19, 20
Access
Access to our files	18
Actuarial data certification	7
Actuarial valuations – general
Provisions for expenses in.....	11
see Assumed retirement age see Valuation interest rate
see Gains and losses analysis
Actuarial Information Summary Form.....	19, 20
Actuarial valuations – solvency
Annual filing if ratio is less than 1	12
Basis for	10
Requirements.....	6
see Benefits, consent and special Administrator
Meetings with individual plan administrators	12
Reminder to provide all relevant information	18
Address for obtaining Act and Regulations.....	18
Access to our files	18
General questions from stakeholders.....	18
Age
Pensionable age defined	13
Assumed retirement age	9
Agreements with provincial authorities	20
Amendments to Regulations effective in 2002
Simplified pension plans	23
Pension council and committee	23
Disclosure.....	23

Amendments
Review of plan amendments	15, 22
Future amendments	22, 23
Administration of pension plan amendments	5
Identifying PBSA changes	14
Collective agreements – retroactivity of 1/1/87 amendments	7
Annual Filings
Annual Information Return
New form as at October 1, 1997	16
Clarification of some filing requirements	13
Reporting “Included Employment”	13
Auditor’s reports and financial statements
New form as at October 1, 1998	16
Qualified opinion	8
Revised requirements for individual trustee plans and others	11
Signatory for	6
CIA standards of practice	13
Considerations for future reporting	8
Fees
Move towards full cost recovery	6
Dynamic fee structure	6
October 1, 1998	18
List of assets
Considerations for future reporting	8
Requirement for	16
Real estate, resource, and investment corporation
Required filings	15
Other
“As at” dates of reports to correspond with plan year end	3
Plans with a solvency ratio less than one	12
New filing requirements being considered	10
New follow-up procedures	10
Ancillary benefits
Flexible pension benefits	9
Supplemental employee retirement plans	19
Annual Information Return
Clarification re some filing requirements	13
Annual filings for plans that have a solvency ratio less than one	12
“Included Employment” and completing the Annual Information Return	15
also see Fees
Annual Information Return	6, 13, 16
Joint Annual Information Return – OSFI and Revenue Canada	19, 20
OSFI Form 60	20
Application of the 50% rule to past service benefits	18
Assets
That are difficult to value – OSFI requirements	10
Eventual changes to filing requirements	8
Lists of assets	8, 16
Asset transfers	19
Assumed retirement age – see Age
Auditor’s reports and financial statements
Qualified opinion	8
Financial statements	6, 8, 16
see CIA standards of practice

B

Benefits

Application of the 50% rule to past service benefits 18
 Changes to CPP and the effect on contribution and benefit calculation 18
 Deferred pensions – entitlement to early retirement 18
 Credit splitting/marriage breakdown 5
 Subject to consent 9
 Special on plan termination, e.g., bridging, early unreduced retirement 7, 9
 Suspension of 8
 Change in OSFI’s position 9
 Conflict with tax rules 9
 Yugoslavia – sanctions on payment of benefits 9

Bill S-3

New legislation – Bill S3 14, 15, 16
 Supervision by OSFI – new approach 14
 Second reading of Bill C-85 15
 Introduction of Bill S-3 16
 Special edition of PBSA Update 17

Borrowing by pension funds 9

C

CAPSA 20

CAPSA Investment Policy Committee 23

Cash payments to plan beneficiaries 22

CDIC and CompCorp – insurance coverage for pension plans 9

CIA standards of practice 13

Computer systems

Project 2000 14, 16

Project 2000 questionnaire 18

Computer systems – preparing for the year 2000 14

Project 2000 14, 16

Year 2000 Readiness Certificate 14, 16, 18, 19

Certification of actuarial data as to sufficiency and reliability 7

Classes of employees – single member plans 3

Collective agreements – retroactivity of 1/1/87 amendments 7

Communications

Introduction to new actuary 16

External communications 16

Stakeholder survey 16

Changes to CPP/QPP and effect on contribution and benefit calculation 18

Reminder to provide all relevant information 18

General questions from stakeholders 18

Breakdown of federal pension plans in 1999

Pension plans and membership 20

Market value of assets 20

Return on investment 20

Allocation of assets 20

Report on inflation adjustments 20

Application of surplus/gains 20

Solvency status of defined benefit plans 20

Plan expenses 20

Revenue, expenditures and fees 20

Modified user pay and other assessment methods 2

Consent – benefits subject to 11

Contributions
 Holidays – word of caution to plan administrators.....8
 Remittance within prescribed time limits4, 20

Conversion
 Guidelines6
 Available on request6
 Conversion of plans from defined benefit to defined contribution.....9, 19
 Salary projection requirements (see Plan termination for salary projection requirements).....20

Credit splitting/marriage breakdown – explanation of some requirements9

D
 Data certification, actuarial7
 Data Reliability22
 Declaration of Compliance
 Proposed declaration17
 Registration of pension plans and the Declaration of Compliance.....18
 Declaration of Compliance.....19
 Deferred pensions – entitlement to on early retirement5
 Disclosure regulations22

E
 Early retirement
 Entitlement to deferred pension5
 Early retirement age(s) is 10 years prior to “pensionable age”13
 Electronic filing by diskette.....22,23
 Execution, seizure and garnishment – OSFI position9
 Expenses
 Provision for in actuarial reports11
 Expenses charged to the pension fund must be reasonable11

F
 Fees
 Move towards full cost recovery6
 Dynamic fee structure6
 Basic fee rate effective October 1, 1996.....14
 Annual fees for 1998-99.....17, 18
 Fee assessment methods.....19

Filing requirements
 New filing requirements being considered10
 New follow-up procedure.....10
 Required filings for real estate, resource, and investment corporations15
 Filing of actuarial reports18, 19,23
 Filing requirements for designated pension plans19
 Filing requirements for hybrid (combination) plans.....19
 Actuarial Information Summary (see also Actuarial valuations – general).....19, 20
 Joint Annual Information Return.....19

Financial reporting
 Revised requirements for individual trustee plans and others11

Financial statements – signatory for6
 Financial statements – Form OSFI 60 (notes)19,20, 23

Financial statements and lists of assets – considerations for future reporting8

Flexible pension benefits19

Forfeiture amounts – reporting of11

For the future22

Funding
Proposed changes to solvency funding rules	11
Plant closure benefits	10
G
Gains and loss analysis – OSFI requirements	6
Governance
Governance self-assessment	19, 20, 21, 22
Pension plan governance and self-assessment	20, 21
Guidelines
Supervisory guide and best practices papers for federally regulated pension plans	15
H
Harmonization
Harmonization initiatives	15
CAPSA 20
Agreements with provincial authorities	20
Other pension organizations	20
I
“Included Employment” and completing the Annual Information Return	15
Interest
On benefits – clarification of PBSA requirements	9
also see Valuation interest rate
Internet – OSFI Web site	14,16, 20, 22, 23
List of pension related items on the OSFI Web site	16
List of pension related items on the OSFI Internet site	17
Access to OSFI Web site	18
Inquiries	23
Investment
Investment Information Return – requirements	11
Investment rules – see Prudent person approach
Securities lending guidelines available on request	8
L
Legislation changes	15
Life income funds (LIFs)	13, 14
No minimum age	15
Life income funds	12, 13, 14, 15, 16
Purchase of annuities or LIFs/proceeds of locked-in RRSPs	18
Location of beneficiaries and retention of records	5
Locating beneficiaries for unclaimed amounts	15
Locking in of small benefits	12
Locked-in RRSPs and the Home Buyer’s Plan	7
M
Market downturn	23
Marriage breakdown, credit splitting – explanation of some requirements	9
Meetings with individual plan administrators	12
Minimum funding standards	19
Minimum funding regulation	22,23
N
Non residency provision of Regulations – clarification	12
Negotiated contribution plans	19

O

Opting out of a PBSA regulated pension plan	15
OSFI – Staff comings and goings	23
Other pension organizations (see Harmonization).....	20

P

Partial plan wind-up.....	23
Part-time employees – eligibility for membership.....	5
Pensionable age defined – interplay with early retirement, vesting and pre-retirement death benefit provisions of the PBSA	13
see Age
Pension plans registered with OSFI at March 31, 2002.....	23
Pension plan examinations – about the program and some findings	1, 4, 5
Selection of plans for examination	18
Pension plans with members in B.C.	11
Plan amendments
Administration of	5
Reminder to identify PBSA changes	14
Review of plan amendments	15
Background to the PBSA amendments	17
Explanation of amendments	17
Future amendments to the PBSA	17
Amendments to the Regulations.....	17
Plan termination
Treatment of special benefits	7
Termination guidelines available on request	6
Purchasing annuities – risk.....	14
Simplified termination reports for one member plans	6, 7, 14
Plant closure benefits – funding of	10
Portability at retirement	19
Portability of pension benefit credits – see Transfer options
Prescribed forms	3
Prudent person approach	6
see also Securities lending guidelines

R

Real estate property values – for purposes of solvency valuations	8
Reciprocal agreements with British Columbia and New Brunswick.....	22
Records retention	11
Refund of surplus and refund of surplus applications	19,23
Change in approval procedures	7
Surplus regulations	20
Regulations, OSFI consolidation available.....	12
Report on Plan Governance and Self-Assessment Survey.....	22
Reporting requirements
“As at” dates of reports to correspond with plan year-end	3
Response Rate	22
Results of Benchmark Survey	22
Requests for information – policy re direct requests from plan members	4
Retirement annuity purchases by defined benefit plans
Solvency ratio less than one	13
see Life income funds
Risk-based supervision – OSFI’s role	21

S

Salary projections requirements20

Same-sex common law partnership22

Securities lending guidelines – available on request8

Self-Assessment Survey22

Solvency valuations – see Actuarial valuation, solvency

Statements – annual, member and spouse’s4

Status of Amendments to the Legislation22

Status of regulation amendments23

Supervision by OSFI – new approach14

Supervision of the Pension Benefits Standards Act, 1985 in 2000-2001-200322,23

Supplemental employee retirement plans19

Surplus regulations20, 22

Survey

 Results of Update 16 survey18

Suspension of pension benefits

 Change in OSFI’s position8

 Conflicts with tax rules9

T

Termination, plan – see Plan termination

Termination of membership – see Transfer options

Transfer options

 Default options12

 Applicable to pre- and post-1987 annuity and other insurance contracts3

 PSSA and portability options15

 also see Life income funds

 Business related transactions and approval of pension asset transfer18

 Portability at retirement19

U

Unlocking for hardship22

V

Valuation interest rate – assumptions must be adequate8

Valuation retirement age – assumed9

W

Web site, OSFI – see Internet – OSFI Web site

Wind-up partial plan23

Y

Year 2000 readiness certificates19

Yugoslavia – sanctions on payment of benefits8

To reach us:

Private Pension Plans Division
 Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions Canada
 255 Albert Street, Ottawa, Ontario K1A 0H2
 Telephone: (613) 990-8124
 Fax: (613) 990-7394
 E-mail: leslie.karook@osfi-bsif.gc.ca
 OSFI Web site: www.osfi-bsif.gc.ca