General Criterion
The Project involves or is related to sport as defined by the criteria outlined in Sport Canada’s “Definition of Sport.”
The project’s scope strengthens the Canadian sport system, being (indicate one): National Pilot leading to national Component of a national program
The project delivery promotes technically and ethically sound and safe sport based on established Long Term Participant/Athlete Development Model principles. Projects shall complement and/or reinforce the principles of NSOs’ Long Term Participant/Athlete Development Models. Such models should be used to promote greater complementarity and harmonization of NSO/MSO services, programs, and/or competition structures
Lead Organization Guarantee criterion
One organization (the “Lead Organization”) has the authority and responsibility to provide Sport Canada with all relevant information on behalf of the partners. For projects that include sport program delivery, a partnership has been established with the relevant sport organizations (NSO[s] and/or PSO[s]) to ensure the delivery of technically and ethically sound and safe programs. Lead Organizations not presently funded by Sport Canada must provide a copy of the organization’s constitution, by-laws and objects in both official languages.
The Lead Organization is incorporated under Part II of the Canada Corporations Act , or other relevant federal or provincial legislation
The Lead Organization has independently audited financial statements for each of the last 4 fiscal years.
The Project Partners have agreed to the operational plans for the project.
The Project Partners have agreed to the project budget, including how shortfalls and/or surpluses will be managed.
The Project Partners are committed to ensuring the project contributes to making sport technically and ethically sound and safe for all stakeholders.
The Project Partners subscribe to the principle and practice of doping-free sport in the delivery of the project.
The Project Partners subscribe to the principles and Sport Canada contribution guidelines as relate to Official Languages.
The Project partners subscribe to equity and access, notably for women, persons with a disability and Aboriginal peoples, in the delivery of the project.
The Project Partners subscribe to an environment free of harassment and abuse, and have procedures for the reporting and for the investigation of complaints as may arise in connection with the project.
