

A G E N D A

CLIMATE SCENARIOS WORKSHOP Ottawa, Crowne Plaza Hotel January 31st and February 1st, 2005

JANUARY 31

(in Pinnacle Room, Penthouse Level)

5:00 pm to 7:00 pm Registration and Demonstrations of Scenarios & Tools

FEBRUARY 1

(in Pinnacle Room, Penthouse Level)

8:00 am — Registration & Coffee —
 9:00 am Opening of Workshop: Marc Denis Everell, Assistant Deputy Minister, Environment Canada
 9:15 am Introduction: Don MacIver
 9:30 am Climate Change Science: New Developments in Global Climate Models
 Francis Zwiers, Environment Canada
 10:00 am Climate Change Science: New Developments in Regional Climate Models
 Daniel Caya, OURANOS
 10:30 am — Break —
 11:00 am KEYNOTE PRESENTATION: Impacts & Adaptations Research: Overview
 Linda Mearns, U.S. National Center for Atmospheric Research
 11:30 am Climate Change Science: From modelling to scenarios of climate change
 Philippe Gachon, Environment Canada
 11:50 am The Climate Change Scenarios Network
 Brad Bass, Environment Canada
 12:15 pm — Lunch —
 1:30 pm An ENGO Perspective on Adaptation
 Rick Findlay, Pollution Probe

AGRICULTURE CONCURRENT SESSION (PINNACLE ROOM)

2:00 pm The Hazards of the Canadian Droughts of 2001-02: An Overview of the Climatology and Impacts
 Elaine Wheaton, Saskatchewan Research Council
 2:30 pm Adaptive Responses to the 2001-02 Droughts in Canada: Challenges and Opportunities
 Grace Koshida, Environment Canada
 3:00 pm — Break —
 3:30 pm Climate Change and Water Management in the Okanagan
 Stewart Cohen, Environment Canada
 4:00 pm Climate Change Impacts of Waterborne Disease
 Abdel Maarouf, Environment Canada
 4:30 pm Agricultural Policy: Does it Enhance Adaptability to Climate Change?
 Bob MacGregor, Agriculture Canada

RESOURCE UTILIZATION CONCURRENT SESSION (CHAUDIÈRE ROOM)

Extreme Weather and Societal Vulnerability
 David Etkin, Consultant
Extreme Weather, Infrastructure and Safety
 Heather Auld, Environment Canada
How the Energy Sector Can Adapt to Climate Change
 Monirul Mirza & Brad Bass, Environment Canada
Climate Change Impacts on Road Transportation
 Brian Mills, Environment Canada
Implications of climate change on regulating water levels in the Great Lakes
 Linda Mortsch, Environment Canada