

A World of Solutions Daily

The Carbon Finance Exhibition is open today from 10:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Monday, December 5

□ Today in the Conference Centre

- Carbon is key to international climate change policy, programs, planning and economics.

The Carbon Finance Day has been designed by the International Emissions Trading Association to focus on many of the key issues involved in Clean Development Mechanism, Joint Implementation, carbon finance, emissions trading and pricing.

In the morning, the keynote address will be delivered by the Honourable Pierre Pettigrew, Canada's Minister of Foreign Affairs. He will be followed by Andrei Marcu, President and CEO of the International Emissions Trading Association and Odin Knudsen, Senior Manager of World Bank Carbon Finance Business. The morning will conclude with a roundtable of regulators and market participants discussing market sentiment.

The afternoon features workshops on lessons learned and experience gained, the perspective of carbon funds, journalist training, creating GHG markets in the U.S., waste management and industrial gases, finance, the EU trading scheme and pricing.

The evening wraps up with a variety of workshops.

A detailed agenda is available at: www.ieta.org

9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m.
All rooms

□ Theme of the Day: Carbon Finance Exhibition

- See examples of sustainable development in action at the Canada Pavilion.

□ What's Happening near by?

- Some of the most successful actions on climate change have happened in communities around the world. The 4th Municipal Leaders Summit on Climate Change begins today and ends on Wednesday, bringing together close to 300 municipal leaders and others from many countries to highlight the local initiatives that address climate change, provide economic benefits and lead to more livable communities. The summit is at the Centre Mont Royal and is by invitation-only.
- Corporate leaders, U.S. state governors, Canadian premiers and technical experts are discussing winning strategies and initiatives of governments below the national level at an invitation-only, two-day event: The Climate Leaders Summit at the Fairmount Queen Elizabeth Hotel.

□ Culture Today

- It is an emblem of a bygone era – visit a special film screening and concert tonight of Nanook of the North, a 1922 documentary filmed in Canada's Far North by Robert Flaherty. 8:00 p.m., Cinémathèque québécoise, 335 De Maisonneuve Boulevard East. Use the Metro Berri-UQAM. Free admission.