Benefits

By joining our group of preferred clients, you will enjoy these benefits:

- a reminder when inventory for your publication is running low;
- increased awareness of your products and services by our front-line staff;
- automatic inclusion in our electronic information newsletter (pertinent press releases, updates on Capital Infocentre activities, most recent visitor statistics, etc.);

Criteria

Brochures displayed at the Capital Infocentre must:

1. be tourism oriented and respond to our visitors' needs;
2. be in good taste (family oriented);
3. be of a size not exceeding 11 cm wide by 23 cm long. To display a slightly larger brochure, a second space may be rented at half price;
4. correspond to sites or services accessible by visitors to Canada's Capital Region and surrounding areas;
5. be bilingual as stipulated in the Official Languages Act. Both official languages must be represented equally on the same brochure. It is also possible to have two distinct brochures to satisfy this language requirement.

Additional Information

- The tourism operator must pay all costs associated with transportation of brochures and delivery of sufficient quantities to the Capital Infocentre at the following address:

Capital Infocentre
90 Wellington Street
Ottawa, Ontario
K1P 5A1

- If extra brochures are required, the Infocentre will send one (1) reminder to your representative before supplies run out.
- Space will be assigned on a first-come, first-served basis in the category and at the price level chosen. If the chosen price level is no longer available, the next best available space will be assigned (with corresponding pricing).
- A brochure space cannot be assigned unless a sample copy of your brochure is received.
- Outdated brochures will be removed from the display racks.
- Brochures promoting events will be displayed for a maximum of six weeks prior to the start of the event.
- An electronic confirmation of your assigned brochure space will be sent to you.
- For questions or comments, please contact Sébastien Chouinard at (613) 239-5001.
