

The CAPL won the AAPL Best Community Service Award for the Beef Benefit which was held April 29, 2004. The presentation was made at the AAPL Conference which was recently held in Banff, Alberta. Neil Cusworth, Past President of the CAPL, accepted the award on behalf of "The Beef Benefit Committee". The award is presented to a member or group who have made an extraordinary contribution to AAPL, the land profession, the industry, or the community.