

Your privacy is our concern.

Canada has a new law to protect our privacy. No federally regulated business (such as a bank or a telephone, telecommunications or transportation company) can now collect, use or disclose your personal information without your consent. Your right to check information about you and have it corrected is protected under the law. An independent ombudsman, the Privacy Commissioner of Canada is at your service to investigate complaints relative to Canada's privacy laws. Your privacy is your business. Ours is making sure that it stays that way.
