

US/CANADA TRADE

April 14 & 15, 2004

Do you know where to get information about exporting? Who can help you with exporting? Or where you find export-related information on the Internet? This session will provide information on the export/import process between Canada & the U.S.

On April 14th, in LETHBRIDGE, learn about:

- Export services available from the Canadian and U.S. Consulates and tips on export preparation and planning presented by: a representative from the Canadian Consulate in Denver, and Michael Speck, Principal Commercial Officer, U.S. Consulate General, Calgary; and
- Resources and assistance available to start exporting and to form cross-border partnerships.

On April 15th, in COUTTS, presentations by:

- Canada Customs and U.S. Customs: border procedures; documentation and labeling requirements;
- Canada and U.S. Immigration: business entry regulations; the impact of NAFTA; common misconceptions;
- Customs Brokers: role of a broker and outline of their services; differences between U.S. and Canadian brokers; and
- Tours of the Customs facilities.
