CENSUS

Count yourself in! May 15, 2001

For over 300 years, the census has painted a picture of our people and the places in which we live. This census, on May 15, 2001, will continue the tradition by providing information needed by community groups, businesses and governments to develop plans for education and training, seniors' housing, day care, fire protection, public transport, and many other programs that are important to all of us.

As Canada's national statistics agency, Statistics Canada uses census data for producing statistical tables, analytical reports and for selecting samples or following up respondents for some of our surveys. These uses are strictly for statistical purposes and no one outside of the agency can have access to your identifiable information.

By law, Statistics Canada must take a census every five years, and every household must fill in a census form. Also, by law, Statistics Canada must protect the confidentiality of the personal information you provide. Our employees, including census takers, are personally liable to fines or imprisonment should they break the confidentiality of your information.

Please complete your census form and mail it back on May 15, 2001.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Ivan P. Fellegi
Chief Statistician of Canada

☎ Census Help Line

Call 1 800 591-2001 if:

- you need help completing your questionnaire;
- you have difficulty answering a question and you need clarification;
- you would like more information about what happens to your questionnaire;
- you or a member of your household would prefer to fill in a separate questionnaire.

TTY/TDD users only, call 1 877 881-8301.

The Census Help Line is a free service and is available from May 1 to May 31 between 8 a.m. and 9 p.m.

Reasons why we ask the questions

Step A asks for your address so that we can keep track of every dwelling we count. We use your telephone number to call you for any information you may have forgotten to include in your questionnaire.

Steps B and C help you to decide who should be included and who should not be included in the questionnaire. They tell us that we have counted everyone we need to count and that we have not counted anyone twice.

Step D tells us if someone in your household operates a farm. It also ensures that we count all farms for the Census of Agriculture.

Question 1 asks for the name of each person in the household so that no one is left out or counted twice. Names are not entered into the census database.

Questions 2 to 6 ask about the people living in each household. From these questions we can learn about the living arrangements of people living in Canada, family size, the number of children living with one parent or two parents, and the number of people who live alone. This information is used for planning social programs, such as Old Age Security and the Child Tax Benefit. It is also used by towns and cities to plan a variety of services such as day-care centres, schools and senior citizens' homes.

Question 7 asks for the language first learned at home in childhood and still understood. These data are used to establish the size of the various language groups. This information is used to implement programs that protect the rights of Canadians under the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms. It also helps to determine the need for language training and services in English or French.

The law protects what you tell us

The confidentiality of your census questionnaire is protected by law. All Statistics Canada employees have taken an oath of secrecy. Your personal information cannot be given to anyone outside Statistics Canada – not the police, not another government department, not another person. This is your right.

Your census questionnaire will be retained in accordance with legislative requirements and will be stored securely. You can ask to see the information you gave about yourself on your 2001 Census questionnaire after November 2001. To do this, write to the Privacy Coordinator, Statistics Canada, 25th Floor, R.H. Coats Building, Ottawa, Ontario K1A 0T6.
