Hello! My name is Justin. Welcome to the Supreme Court of Canada. I will be guiding you through this activity book, which is a fun-filled way for you to learn about the role of the Supreme Court of Canada in the Canadian judicial system.

The Supreme Court of Canada stands at the top of the Canadian judicial system and is therefore Canada's highest court. This means that the Court's decisions are final. The cases heard by the Supreme Court of Canada are those that raise a question of public importance or an important question of law.

Now that I have given you a brief introduction about the role of the Supreme Court of Canada, it is time for you to test your knowledge while learning some very cool facts about Canada's highest court.
