

Igloolik 2006

Igloolik is located on a small island in Foxe Basin, just off Melville Peninsula on the mainland of Nunavut.

Although Igloolik is part of the Qikiqtani or Baffin region, there exists a mix of Inuit cultural traditions from each of the three regions.

Igloolik is a community that balances modern living with a traditional way of life. This balance is illustrated by Isuma Production's Atanarjuat, the award winning movie based on traditional legend.

For more information about Igloolik and its attractions, visit the Nunavut Handbook website at: <http://www.arctictravel.com>.

Getting There: First Air operates flights from Iqaluit to Igloolik on Thursday, Saturday, Monday and Tuesday. Kivalliq Air operates flights from Rankin Inlet to Igloolik on Sundays and Thursdays, with stops in Repulse Bay and Hall Beach.

Please check with the airlines for schedule changes.
