Application for Employment-Assistance Benefits

GUIDE

The information requested in this form is necessary to study your application for employment-assistance benefits, and to apply the Act respecting income support, employment assistance and social solidarity. Please read each question carefully and fill in every section which concerns you.

Depending on your situation, complete in PEN using BLOCK LETTERS:

• SIGN section 15 of the form.

Once you, and your spouse, if applicable, have completed and signed the application, return it to your local employment centre. You will be contacted later to arrange for an interview. You must bring your health insurance card and one other piece of signed I.D. with you to the interview.

YOUR ELIGIBILITY FOR EMPLOYMENT-ASSISTANCE BENEFITS WILL BE ASSESSED AS OF THE DAY THIS FORM IS RECEIVED BY ONE OF OUR OFFICES.

VERIFICATION AND EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION

Initial and subsequent verification

Pursuant to current legislation, as soon as you file an application for employment-assistance benefits, the Ministère de l'Emploi et de la Solidarité sociale obtains tax information about you and your spouse, if applicable for the previous year from Revenu Québec and information about your vehicle(s) from the Société de l'assurance automobile du Québec, in order to verify the information contained in your application form.

Effective January 1, 2006, the Department may use certain personal information held under the Québec Parental Insurance Plan to verify your eligibility for programs and measures provided by the Act respecting income support, employment assistance and social solidarity.

The Ministère de l'Emploi et de la Solidarité sociale may also contact various public agencies or private organizations at the time, without your consent, to verify your eligibility for the programs and measures provided for under the Act respecting income support, employment assistance and social solidarity. You should be aware that such verification may involve contacting a landlord, employer, financial institution, life insurance company, municipality, credit bureau, etc.

Exchange of information with other organizations

The Ministère de l'Emploi et de la Solidarité sociale may also collect or transmit personal information (e.g. name and address, amount of benefits, compensation or income received, value of an immoveable) to the Commission de la santé et de la sécurité du travail, Human Resources and Skills Development Canada, Canada Revenue Agency, Ontario Ministry of Community, Family and Children's Services, New Brunswick Department of Family and Community Services, Ministère de l'Éducation, du Loisir et du Sport du Québec, Ministère de la Justice du Québec, Ministère de l'Immigration et des Communautés culturelles du Québec, Ministère des Affaires municipales et des Régions, Ministère de la Sécurité publique du Québec, Revenu Québec, Cree Hunters and Trappers Income

Security Board, Protecteur du citoyen, Régie de l'assurance maladie du Québec, Régie des rentes du Québec, Correctional Service of Canada, Société de l'assurance automobile du Québec and the Directeur de l'état civil.

Comparison of computer files

Computer files may be compared in order to identify persons receiving benefits from the Ministère de l'Emploi et de la Solidarité sociale as well as other sources such as employment insurance benefits, student loans and bursaries, compensation paid following an automobile accident or a work accident, and pensions. These comparisons also serve to identify persons who are incarcerated, those who need to be housed in an establishment to ensure their social re-entry, or those who are enrolled in a high school vocational program, or a college or university program. In the case of Revenu Québec, the comparisons serve to verify income, property and certain information concerning the person's spouse or they can serve to administer the Special Housing Assistance Benefit. In the case of the Directeur de l'état civil, the purpose of such comparisons is to obtain information on marriages and civil unions, the dissolution of a marriage or a civil union, and deaths. In the case of the Canada Revenue Agency, the purpose of such comparisons is to adjust employment-assistance benefits based on the information obtained regarding the federal government's National Child Benefit Supplement.

Despite such verifications and comparisons of files, you are obliged under the Act to declare your income from all sources and any changes in your situation. However, you are not obliged, except at the request of the Department, to declare the amount of the Child Assistance paid to you by the Régie des rentes du Québec or the amount of the Canada Child Tax Benefit from the federal government. However, if you receive amounts from those agencies, the overpaid benefits may be claimed. A false declaration may lead to prosecution.

The information exchanged with other organizations remains confidential and will only serve the purposes explained above.

Ministère de l'Emploi et de la Solidarité sociale

For the purposes of this application, notions such as spouse and dependent child are defined as follows:

Spouse

A spouse is:

- a person who lives with you (even if this person is temporarily absent), and with whom you are married or in a civil union:
- a person who lives with you (even if this person is temporarily absent), and who is the parent of at least one of your children;
- a person who is of full age, of the opposite or the same sex, who cohabits with you in a de facto union (even if this person is temporarily absent), and who has, at a given time, lived with you for at least one year.

Dependent child

If you support him or her, a dependent

- · a child under age 18, unless that child is married or is the parent of a child he or she supports;
- a child aged 18 or over, who is a full-time or a part-time student, unless that child is married, is in a civil union, has a spouse or is the parent of a child he or she supports.

A dependent child is not:

- · a child who is placed in a child and youth protection centre, whether the child is placed in your home, with another family or in a rehabilitation centre;
- a child you had with a previous spouse, if this spouse supports the child.

DOCUMENTS REQUIRED

The original versions of the documents that pertain to you are essential for processing your application.

Please note that the documents numbered 1 to 6, must be supplied by the applicant, the spouse and dependent children, if applicable.
