

Publications

Fisheries and Oceans Canada

These free publications are available in limited quantities.
Please indicate the number of copies requested, and complete the form on reverse.

Oceans, Habitat and Enhancement Branch Community Directory

Directory of volunteers, community hatchery staff, education coordinators, and community advisors. 32 pages.

QUANTITY REQUESTED:

Developing Fish Habitat Signage - A Guide for Community Groups and Concerned Citizens

QUANTITY REQUESTED:

The Fraser Basin - Sustainability Through Responsibility

Impacts of urban development, agriculture, forestry, manufacturing, mining, transportation, and dams. 32 pages, French or English.

QUANTITY REQUESTED:

Healthy Farms Healthy Streams

Tips for maintaining a healthy stream on a working farm, with information on benefits both to business and to the environment.

QUANTITY REQUESTED:

Home Tips for Healthy Streams

Tips for maintaining a healthy stream in your neighbourhood, with extra information for homeowners living beside a stream.

QUANTITY REQUESTED:

Pacific Salmon Life Cycle Poster

Follows salmon from the ocean to the spawning ground. Includes illustrations of 6 B.C. salmonids.

QUANTITY REQUESTED:

Where and When to See Salmon

Spawning channels, hatcheries, and other places where different species can be seen, and the best time of year for each. Booklet, 19 pages.

QUANTITY REQUESTED:

Habitat and Enhancement Facts and Figures

Practical information on salmon culture and habitat enhancement, including conversion tables for weights and measures and useful contacts.

QUANTITY REQUESTED:

Scales & Tales

Set of 8 fact/fun sheets for children aged 8-12, with Pacific salmon life cycle information on one side and an activity or game on the reverse.

QUANTITY REQUESTED:

The Streamkeepers Program

Information about the Streamkeepers Program: what it is, how it helps in caring for streams and wetlands, and how you can become a part of it.

QUANTITY REQUESTED:

Lost Streams of the Lower Fraser River

Side one: full colour map. Side two: ways to take part in stream stewardship; stories of streams and creeks that need stewardship today.

QUANTITY REQUESTED:

Lost Streams of Victoria

Side one: full colour map. Side two: ways to take part in stream stewardship; stories of streams and creeks that need stewardship today.

QUANTITY REQUESTED:

Field Identification Guide for Juvenile Pacific Salmon

Small booklet, 10 pages.

QUANTITY REQUESTED:

Healthy Streams - Yours to Protect and Enjoy

Requirements for healthy habitat and tips for living or working near a stream. Pamphlet.

QUANTITY REQUESTED:

StreamTalk - The Newsletter for Salmonid Enhancement

Published three times a year. To be on the mailing list, please e-mail your request to Joanne Day, dayj@pac.dfo-mpo.gc.ca

QUANTITY REQUESTED:

Storm Drain Marking Program - manual and pamphlets

Manual with student activities for use before, during and after your group marks storm drains in your neighbourhood.

QUANTITY REQUESTED:

Freshwater Intake End-of-Pipe Fish Screen Guideline

Guidelines for the design and installation of screens over freshwater intake pipes. 27 pages.

QUANTITY REQUESTED:

Marine Guide to Small Boat Moorings

Guidelines for protecting sensitive fish habitat when planning a dock or float.

QUANTITY REQUESTED:

Marine Guide to Small Boat Launches

Guidelines for building a low-impact private boat launch.

QUANTITY REQUESTED:

Marine Guide to Stormwater Runoff

Advice on how to protect the fragile shoreline on your waterfront property.

QUANTITY REQUESTED:

Please fax or mail this form, with quantities indicated, to:

Joanne Day
Fisheries and Oceans Canada
Oceans, Habitat & Enhancement Branch
200 - 401 Burrard Street
Vancouver, BC V6C 3S4

Phone: 604-666-6614
Fax: 604-666-0417
Email: dayj@pac.dfo-mpo.gc.ca

Name

Organization

Address

Postal Code

Home Phone

Work Phone

Fax

E-mail

NOTE: Other free publications can be downloaded or ordered by visiting www.pac.dfo-mpo.gc.ca
and
www.stewardshipcentre.bc.ca