

This form must be filled out by the parents, sponsor or spouse if they must contribute toward the cost of the student's education and if they expect their income for the 2006 calendar year to be at least 10% lower than that for the previous year.

Section 1 Parents', Sponsor's or Spouse's Personal Information

When the student is the dependent of both parents, the parents may either fill out their respective sections on the same form or submit separate forms. When both parents' income is taken into account in assessing the contribution, the parents' combined income must have dropped by at least 10%. When the parents are separated or divorced, this form must be completed by the custodial parent only.

Section 3 Assessment of Financial Resources for 2006

Assessment of income to be reported to Revenu Québec.

Please provide your income for the 2006 calendar year. Add the amounts you expect to receive by December 31, 2006, to those you have already received to date. If you have no income to report, enter zero.

To determine your total income, follow the procedure used on the 2005 Québec income tax return form. Your total income for 2006 is the amount that would appear on line 199 of the income tax return.

Father, sponsor or spouse      Mother, sponsor or spouse
(Round off to nearest dollar.)

Important

1. You must inform Aide financière aux études in writing as soon as possible of any change occurring after the date of this declaration that affects the income you earned or expect to earn for 2006. An increase may affect the amount of financial assistance awarded. You must indicate the new amounts to be taken into consideration in processing the application for financial assistance.
2. Anyone making a false statement may be subject to penalties or legal action. If you fail to report income you have earned, the student may be required to repay part or all of the financial assistance he or she was awarded.

Under paragraph (o) of section 69.1 of the Act respecting the Ministère du Revenu, Aide financière aux études will compare the income you reported in section 3 with the income you reported to Revenu Québec.
