Upon final approval of your application, your current property taxes will be paid on your behalf by the Tax Deferment Program.

General Information

A brochure "The Property Tax Deferment Program" is available from your Municipal or Service BC Government Agents Office.

Tax deferment is a low interest loan program that assists qualified BC home owners pay their annual property taxes. The loan must be fully repaid before the home can be transferred to a new owner...

WHO QUALIFIES FOR TAX DEFERMENT BENEFITS

You may defer payment of property taxes on your principal residence if you are:

- age 60 or over (only one spouse must be 60) or,
a surviving spouse or,
a person with a disability as defined by Regulation,

and if you are:

- a Canadian citizen or permanent resident who has lived in British Columbia for at least one year before applying for Tax Deferment.

EQUITY

You must have 25% equity in your home to qualify for tax deferment. This means that the upper limit of your mortgage, line(s) of credit, and any other charges cannot exceed 75% of the assessed value of your home...

EQUITY CALCULATOR

Table with 2 columns: Description and Value. Rows include Current Assessed Value, BC Assessment value X 75%, Total mortgage(s), line(s) of credit and other charges, and To apply for Property Tax Deferment.

WHAT CAN BE DEFERRED

All or a portion of the current year taxes on your principal residence after the amount of your home owner grant, if any, may be deferred.

Previous year(s) taxes, utility charges, penalty and interest cannot be deferred. They must be fully paid prior to applying for deferment.

TO CANCEL YOUR APPLICATION

If you want to cancel your application, you must contact the Tax Deferment Program at 250 387-0555.

LATE PAYMENT PENALTIES

You will not have to pay late payment penalty charges if you have applied for tax deferment before the property tax payment due date, and your application is approved.

You will be required to pay late payment penalty charges added after the due date:

- if you are found ineligible for the program,
if for any reason you cancel or withdraw your application at any time before this office pays the taxes on your behalf, or if you apply for deferment after the property tax payment due date.

Note: The last date you may apply for tax deferment is December 31 of the current year.

INTEREST CHARGE AND ADMINISTRATION FEE

Interest is charged at a simple interest rate (on deferred taxes only) set semi-annually by the Minister of Small Business and Revenue, at a rate not greater than 2% below the Province's borrowing rate.

Interest is charged from the property tax due date or from the date of the initial deferment application, whichever is later.

A one-time administration fee of $60.00 is added to new approved deferment agreements. A $10.00 annual renewal fee is added to accounts with approved renewal applications. Interest is not charged on fees.

TRANSFER OF TAX DEFERMENT AGREEMENT

The tax deferment agreement is transferable from a deceased owner to an eligible surviving spouse. If a surviving spouse (under 60) remarries, no immediate repayment of deferred taxes is required. However, the former applicant must re-qualify for future tax deferment benefits.

Note: Spouse is a person who is married to another person and living with that person, or a person living with another person in a marriage-like relationship for a continuous period of at least 2 years.
