

e-Tenure Times

Introduction

What is e-Tenure Times?

- A brief newsletter updating you on points of interest regarding the two active phases of e-Tenure.
- Key points and matters needing your attention will be outlined in each newsletter.
- Copies of the newsletter will be posted on the Energy Website (<http://www.energy.gov.ab.ca/com/default.htm>) as well as linking to it from other sites.
- A copy of the first edition is attached.

How often will it be issued?

- The plan is to issue the newsletter approximately every two weeks.
- If something critical comes up we will issue one more frequently.

What is e-Tenure and why should we be interested?

- e-Tenure is the process of moving tenure activities to a web-based process.
- There are three phases in e-Tenure: e-Transfers, e-Postings and e-Bidding.
- Only on the successful completion of one phase is another phase initiated.
- Phase 1 – e-Transfers has been successfully launched (March 31, 2004).
- Phase 2 - e-Bidding is being developed now and is expected to be launched March 30, 2005.
- Phase 3 - e-Bidding will start to be developed in April 2005.
