Information Sheet - Veteran Plate

- The Veteran plate may only be displayed on passenger type and light commercial vehicles. (i.e. cars, station wagons, minivans, motor homes, SUVs or “pick-up” type trucks weighing 2249kg or less)
- Some extended cab and/or dual wheel “pick-up” trucks are not eligible.

The Veteran plate will be available through Service New Brunswick on November 1, 2003. The applicant must have received the completed and approved application form from the New Brunswick Command, Royal Canadian Legion, or the Registrar of Motor Vehicles, prior to this date to receive the plate at that time.

The application form is available through all:

- New Brunswick Royal Canadian Legions;
- Service New Brunswick Centres; as well as
- The Department of Public Safety and Service New Brunswick web-sites.

Assistance in completion of the application form is available through a Legion, or the New Brunswick Command.

The completed and signed application from the veteran, together with a copy of the required documentation, as requested on the application form must be forwarded to New Brunswick Command, at the address indicated on the application.

Please include a self-addressed stamped envelope and allow three to five days for processing. The authorized application form will be returned to the applicant by mail in the self-addressed, stamped envelope. The status of the application request may be verified with the New Brunswick Command by calling 1-506-634-8850.

Veterans who wish to deal directly with the Registrar of Motor Vehicles may do so by sending the application and documentation to:

Registrar of Motor Vehicles
P.O. Box 6000
Fredericton, New Brunswick
E3B5H1.

The veteran should have the old plates removed from the vehicle and take them, along with the authorized application form, to any Service New Brunswick location for processing. The form will be returned to the applicant, in case it is needed in the future to obtain a plate for another vehicle.

There is no limit on the number of plates a veteran may obtain as long as the veteran's name appears on the registration. When the veteran changes cars, the plate may be kept by the veteran, for use on another vehicle, as long as the veteran's name is on the registration of the new vehicle.

The applicant must show valid proof of insurance.
