

Sally's Emergency

A colouring and activity book for kids

BC Ambulance Service

Sally comes home and finds her dad lying on the floor.
She tries but she can't wake him up. What should Sally do?

What number should Sally dial? _____

What emergency service does Sally need: police, fire or ambulance? _____

Sally dialled 911 and the operator asked Sally if she wanted police, fire or ambulance.

Sally said, "Ambulance, my dad is sick."

The ambulance is on its way to Sally's house. Meanwhile, Sally is talking to the Emergency Medical Dispatcher.

The first questions the dispatcher will ask are:

1. Ambulance for what area?
2. What is your address?
3. What is your phone number?
4. What happened?

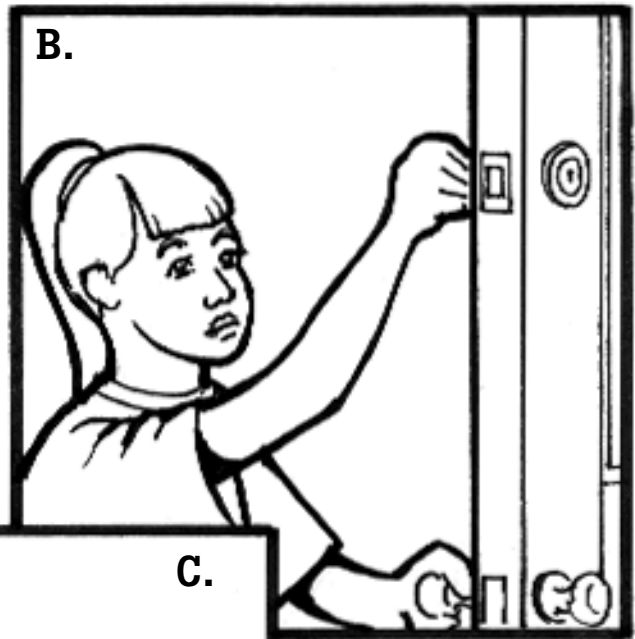

Would you know these answers if you were Sally?
(write them down and keep the answers in a safe place)

phone number:

address:

The dispatcher told Sally to do these things before the ambulance arrives. Identify what Sally is doing.

- A. Lock pets away B. Unlock the door C. Cover Dad with a blanket
D. Collect any medicine your Dad might be taking E. Flash outdoor lights

These are some of the things the paramedics might use to help Sally's father. Can you name them?

A. stethoscope B. blood pressure cuff C. bag valve mask D. cervical collar E. protective gloves F. needle

The paramedics put Sally's dad on a stretcher to take him to the hospital. They give him oxygen to help him breathe and they bundle him up to keep him warm.

The paramedic tells Sally her dad is going to be fine, but he needs to go to the hospital. Because Sally is home alone, the paramedic asks her to come along too.

The paramedics watch Sally's dad closely.
Sally is keeping an eye on her dad too.

Ambulance services...
by land, air and sea

Thanks for sharing Sally's Emergency with us!

For more information about the British Columbia Ambulance Service (BCAS), and our operations, please contact us through the contacts section of our official web page.

