

15. Emergency Health Services

This chapter is currently in development in collaboration with the pre-hospital sector and will include plans for land and air ambulance services. Sector specific tools and guidelines will be included and the chapter will be made available as soon as the work is complete.