

Group Lodging Operations

Course Sponsor:

Justice Institute of B.C. - Emergency Social Services Training

Target Audience:

Group Lodging Managers, Group Lodging Workers, Resource Provider Coordinators (Lodging)

Course Description:

Duration: 1 Day

ESS team members who have group lodging responsibilities will learn how to adapt facilities to dormitory type accommodation for people displaced from their homes during a disaster. The workshop content includes both planning and operational tasks and will provide participants with the knowledge and skills required to work in or manage a group lodging facility.

Course Objectives:

Upon completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- Identify the key functions and/or services of the group lodging facility
- Identify group lodging planning tasks
- Identify group lodging operations tasks
- Address challenges that may arise in a group lodging facility

Prerequisite:

- Introduction to ESS
- Reception Centre Operations

Type of Instruction:

Lecture, group discussion, small-group work

Class Size:

10 Minimum, 24 Maximum

Course Location:

In your community or neighbouring community

Course Availability:

ESS Directors should contact the Emergency Management Division at the Justice Institute to request this course in their community.

Point of Contact:

Emergency Management Division
715 McBride Blvd.
New Westminster, BC V3L 5T4
Phone: (604) 528-5790
Fax: (604) 528-5798
E-mail: emd@jibc.bc.ca
www.jibc.bc.ca/emergency/f-emergency.html