Incident Command System Orientation I-100

Course Sponsor:

Justice Institute of B.C.- Emergency Management Training

*Target Audience:

Personnel who may work in a support role at an incident, or who may support an incident from an off-site location.

Course Description:

Duration: Self-study or 1 Day

The purpose of this course is to introduce the Incident Command System; its organization, 12 principles, basic terminology and common responsibilities.

Course Objectives:

On completion of this course, participants will be able to:
- Work in a support role at an incident
- Support an incident from an off-site location
- Identify and define the 12 Principles of ICS
- List the common responsibilities associated with incident assignments
- Define Incident Command System

Topics include:
- The five Incident Command System functions
- Titles and duties of Command and General Staff
- Organizational units in Operations, Planning, Logistics, and Finance/Admin sections
- Supervisory titles and levels within the ICS organization
- Terms and functions of major incident facilities
- Use of an Incident Action Plan at an incident
- Span of control
- Common responsibilities associated with incident assignments
- ICS application
- Comprehensive resource managements
- Personnel accountability

- Modular organization with unity and chain of command

Prerequisite:

- None

Type of Instruction:

Lecture, group activities and scenario

Class Size:

24 Maximum

Course Location:

Courses can be delivered at various locations as agreed upon. The vast majority of Emergency Management Division courses are conducted away from the Justice Institute's campuses at locations convenient to clients and students.

Point of Contact:

Emergency Management Division
715 McBride Blvd.
New Westminster, BC V3L 5T4
Phone: (604) 528-5790
Fax: (604) 528-5798
E-mail: emd@jibc.bc.ca
www.jibc.bc.ca/emergency/f-emergency.html

Additional Comments:

Courses are delivered on a contract basis with municipalities, provincial and federal government agencies, the private sector and non-governmental organizations.