

AEHY - Nuclear Emergency Response (NER) Management

Course Sponsor:

Department of National Defence

Target Audience:

Officers designated as Nuclear Emergency Response Commanders (NEC), and operational and support staff required to plan, command and advise the response to a nuclear emergency involving nuclear powered vessels, nuclear weapons or radioisotopes from other origins.

Participant Restrictions:

Capt/Lt(N)-Col/Capt(N)

Course Description:

Duration: 3 days

A formal course providing classroom instruction and practical scenarios involving the command of nuclear emergency response elements in all phases of NER operations.

Course Objectives:

Topics to include:

- Command nuclear emergency response elements in all phases of NER operations.
- Preparation of plans for NER training and operations.
- Evaluation of NER capabilities.
- Providing advice and making recommendations in all phases of NER operations.

Prerequisite:

Level 2 (Secret) Clearance
Minimum medical category 423325

Type of Instruction:

Classroom lectures
Practical command post/table top exercises

Class Size:

18

Course Location:

Course is conducted in Esquimalt or Halifax

Point of Contact:

Maj. Peter Harbert, O.M.M, C.D.
DNBCD 3-2 (CBRN Counter Terrorism)
J3 NBC Cntl (NBCD Support Continental Ops)
Tel: (613) 992-4615
Fax: (613) 992-5173
Email: harbert.pg@forces.ca