

AEXD - Nuclear Emergency Response (NER) Radiation Monitor

Course Sponsor:

Department of National Defense

Target Audience:

Officers and Non-commissioned members designated to instruct, organize and supervise personnel in NER monitoring, decontamination, and control.

Participant Restrictions:

MCpl/MS-Capt/Lt(N)

Course Description:

Duration 4 days

A formal course providing instruction in radiation monitoring, radiological survey, and radiological decontamination in all phases of NER operations.

Course Objectives:

Topics include:

- Conducting radiation monitoring and survey in all phases of NER operations.
- Conducting radiological decontamination in all phases of NER operations.

Prerequisite:

Be selected for employment requiring this qualification;

- Have a minimum medical category of 4 2 2 2 5 and be medically fit to fulfil the duties as listed in B-GS-138-001/FP-001- NER Manual
- Possess security clearance Level 1 (Confidential).

Type of Instruction:

Classroom lectures, and practical training

Class Size:

24

Course Location:

Course is conducted in Esquimalt or Halifax

Point of Contact:

Maj. Peter Harbert, O.M.M, C.D.
DNBCD 3-2 (CBRN Counter Terrorism)
J3 NBC Cntl (NBCD Support Continental Ops)
Tel: (613) 992-4615
Fax: (613) 992-5173
Email: harbert.pg@forces.ca