

Federal, Provincial/Territorial Emergency Health Services Training Program

Course Sponsor:

Health Canada in consultation with Provincial/Territorial Emergency Health Services Directors

Target Audience:

Varied individuals responsible for delivering Emergency Health
Services (EHS)

Course Description:

We are currently developing this program in consultation with a working group on training nominated by Provincial/Territorial EHS Directors. Some of the courses currently under development include:

- Basic Emergency Health Services
- Hospital Emergency Preparedness/Response
- Mass Casualty Triage
- Public Health Emergency Preparedness/Response
- Emergency Planning/Response for Special Care Facilities

Course Objectives:

Will vary by course

Prerequisite:

The Basic EHS course (or equivalent) will be a pre-requisite for most of the other courses.

Type of Instruction:

Lecture, discussion and tabletop/simulation exercises.

Class Size:

Will vary by course

Course Location:

Regionally, as determined by Health Canada in consultation with the Province/Territory

Course Availability:

Determined by Health Canada in consultation with Province/Territory

Cost:

Shared by Health Canada & Provincial/Territorial Emergency Health Services

Point of Contact:

Provincial/Territorial Emergency Health Services Director
Contact information available through:

Patti Carson (613)-946-6978
Emergency Services Educator
Centre for Emergency Preparedness and Response
Office of Emergency Preparedness, Planning and Training
Health Canada
Fax: 613-948-7516