

Emergency Public Information (EPI)

Course Sponsor:

Newfoundland & Labrador Emergency Measures Organization
(NLEMO)

Participant Restrictions:

This course is open to those individuals who are designated as spokesperson for the municipality, department or agency. Therefore, only those identified as such will be accepted into the course.

Course Description:

Duration – 3 days

It covers communications plans, interview processes and techniques, public information teams, public inquiry issues, news conferences and press releases. This course is offered in conjunction with Jim Stanton and Associates.

Prerequisite:

Emergency Plans and Operations (EPO)

Type of Instruction:

This course is a mix of theory-based sessions and practical exercises.

Class Size:

16

Cost:

- $100.00 for: Municipal officials, provincial government employees, amateur radio groups, Fire departments, police, etc.
- $300.00 for Private Sector Groups.
Cheques should be made payable to Newfoundland Exchequer Account and must be received with your application.

Point of Contact:

Paul Peddle
Training Specialist
Newfoundland and Labrador Emergency Measures Organization
(NLEMO)
Department of Municipal and Provincial Affairs
50 Parade Street
P.O. Box 8700
St. John's, NL
A1B 4J6