

EMO Team: Site Management

Course Sponsor:

Emergency Measures Organization

Target Audience:

Community Emergency Measures, Municipalities/Councils

Participant Restrictions:

Participant in the Community EMO Team

Course Description:

Focuses on command system, supports available, and steps necessary to prepare for and manage a site during an emergency event.

Course Objectives:

To prepare managers for site management during disaster events.

Prerequisite:

None

Type of Instruction:

On site, classroom and exercise

Class Size:

12

Course Location:

Island communities, fire departments, Justice Institute of PEI

Course Availability:

Average of 6 times a year and upon request

Cost:

No cost to participant

Point of Contact:

Cindy MacDougall
EMO Training Officer
902-888-8050

Additional Comments:

There is a health and social service component in this course.