

Red Cross and Dept.of Health and Social Services:
Site Management Workshop

Course Sponsor:

Red Cross & Department of Health and Social Services

Target Audience:

Leaders of first responder teams/key players

Participant Restrictions:

By invitation

Course Description:

Focuses on emergency management and levels of progression. Provides the “big picture” as well as best practice discussions in first response.

Course Objectives:

To prepare key players for effective and efficient management during disaster events.

Prerequisite:

Invitation

Type of Instruction:

Classroom and Exercise

Class Size:

30

Course Location:

Charlottetown

Course Availability:

Once a year – Fall

Cost:

No cost to participant

Point of Contact:

Janice MacWilliams
Red Cross
566-6262

Additional Comments:

There is a health and social service component in this course.