

Health and Social Services as Part of Emergency Preparedness: Section on Physical Health

Course Sponsor:

Ministère de la Santé et des Services sociaux du Québec

Target Audience:

Ambulance attendants or any responder assigned to victim triage on an emergency site

Participation Restrictions:

Training intended for employees of the health and social services network

Course Description:

Duration: 2 days

The session is an introduction to physical health response on an emergency site. The aim of this session is as follows:

- Develop a common understanding among responders of the organization and operation of emergency preparedness in the event of a disaster;
- Provide the knowledge and skills required to effectively and safely respond on an emergency site.

Course Objectives:

The session was developed in 8 modules:

- Module 1- Disasters: A Reality
- Module 2- Emergency Preparedness: A Distinct Context for Response
- Module 3- The S.T.A.R.T. Triage Method
- Module 3B- Simulation Exercise: Fair Triage
- Module 4- Physical Health Response on an Emergency Site
- Module 5- Hazardous Material and Physical Health Response
- Module 6- The Reaction of Victims and Responders in Disaster Situations
- Module 7- Stress Management as Responder

- Module 8- The Regional Emergency Preparedness Plan of the Health and Social Services Network

Prerequisites:

Degree and experience required for the job

Type of Training:

Numerous approaches: magisterial, theoretical exercises, sharing of practical experience, role-playing

Class Size:

Approximately 20 participants

Course Location:

Training provided in the health regions

Course Availability:

Dependent on the planning in each health region

Cost:

None

Contact:

Patrice Guyard
Ministère de la Santé et des Services sociaux
Coordination ministérielle en sécurité civile
1075 Ste-Foy Road, 14th floor
Québec, Quebec G1S 2M1
Telephone: (418) 266-7000
Fax: (418) 266-7150