CODE TRANSITION TRAINING

Building and Fire Code Transition Training

Are You Ready for the New Objective-Based Building and Fire Codes?

The Building Standards Unit and the Office of the Fire Commissioner are sponsoring a transition training program to help Saskatchewan Code users make the change to the new 2005 Codes. Hosted by the Saskatchewan Building Officials Association (SBOA), transition training sessions will be held in both Regina and Saskatoon.

Topics Include:

- Organization of the 2005 Codes
- Applying the Code using Division B
- Intent Statements
- Application Statements
- Alternative Solutions
- Objective Statements
- Function Statements

Who Should Attend?

- Building Officials
 - Municipal Administrators
 - Architects
 - Engineers
 - Contractors
 - Interior Designers
 - Fire Inspectors
 - Public Health Inspectors
 - Building Owners and Managers
 - Students
 - Other Code Users
- *Remember to bring your Code books

When and Where?

In Regina

- October 25, 26 and 27
- Travelodge Hotel
- 4177 Albert Street South
- (306) 586-3443 1-800-578-7878

In Saskatoon

- November 7 and 8
- Travelodge Hotel
- 106 Circle Drive West
- (306) 242-8881 1-800-578-7878

The full registration fee for SBOA non-members includes a hospitality night on Wednesday, the banquet Thursday evening and attendance at the Friday conference sessions.

"The National Building Code (NBC) and National Fire Code (NFC) each contain provisions that deal with the safety of persons in buildings in the event of a fire and the protection of buildings from the effects of fire. These two National Model Codes are developed as complementary and coordinated documents to minimize the possibility of their containing conflicting provisions. It is expected that buildings comply with both the NBC and the NFC."
