

Wilderness Tourism Licensing Act Checklist

This checklist will help you get ready to apply for your Wilderness Tourism License. For more information, it refers you to the publication, What wilderness tourism operators need to know about the Wilderness Tourism Licensing Act and other applicable laws, which is included in your wilderness tourism kit.

Are you a Canadian citizen?

- YES? Carry on!
 NO? see Immigration laws Part 4: General Business Laws

Can you work in Canada?

- YES? Carry on!
 NO? see Immigration laws Part 4: General Business Laws

Is your business registered in the Yukon?

- YES? Carry on!
 NO? see Registering your business Part 4: General Business Laws

Do you have Yukon Workers' Compensation for your employees?

- YES? Carry on!
 NO? see Yukon Workers' Compensation, Part 2: Getting Your Wilderness Tourism License

Do you have adequate public liability insurance?

- YES? Carry on!
 NO? see Public Liability Insurance Coverage, Part 2: Getting Your Wilderness Tourism License

Do your guides have basic First Aid and CPR certificates?

- YES? Carry on!
 NO? see First Aid and CPR Certificates Part 2: Getting Your Wilderness Tourism License

Do you know about low impact camping and waste disposal requirements?

- YES? Carry on!
 NO? see No-trace Wilderness Travel Requirements, Part 3: Maintaining Your License

Are you sure you have the permits and permission you need for your trip?

- YES? Carry on!
 NO? read all sections under Part 4: General Business Laws, Part 5: Environmental Laws, & Part 6: First Nation Lands

Are you well-acquainted with relevant federal, territorial, municipal and First Nations legislation?

- YES? Carry on!
 NO? read all sections under Part 4: General Business Laws, Part 5: Environmental Laws, & Part 6: First Nation Lands

If you can check off everything on this list, you're ready to apply for your license! Before you do though, make sure you've read and understand all the sections in this package including the Act and Regulations. This checklist touches on the critical requirements, but there may be others that apply to your situation.