Application No. 2005-0333-5

The Commission notes the apparent failure of the licensee to comply with the condition of licence relating to Category 3 music (Traditional and Special Interest).

Background of non-compliance by CIHO-FM

Since 1989, the Commission notes that the licensee has been found to be in non-compliance on four occasions:

- in 1989, short-term renewal (thirty-two months) due to non-compliance relating to the broadcast of locally-produced programming and to Category 3 music;
- in 1992, two-year renewal due to non-compliance relating to logger tapes and to Category 3 music;
- in 1994, two-year renewal due to non-compliance relating to logger tapes. The Commission issued a mandatory order concerning the logger tapes; and

- in 1996, two-year renewal due to non-compliance relating to Canadian Content for Category 3 music. The Commission issued a mandatory order concerning Category 3 music.

In 1998, the licensee proved that it was in full compliance and the Commission renewed the licence for a seven-year term.

The municipalities currently have agreements with TVOntario regarding the installation and maintenance of transmitting equipment on municipal property.
