Re: License renewal application - Radio Network CINC-FM Thompson, MB

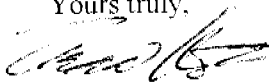

Please consider this letter as a renewal application by Native Communications Inc. (NCI) for an English-and-Native-language radio network license for the purpose of broadcasting the programming of CINC-FM Thompson to other radio programming undertaking, expires August 31, 2005.

NCI is a not-for-profit organization controlled by the Board of Directors. NCI is financially funded by the Canadian Heritage under the Northern Native Broadcast Access Program. NCI's mandate is to develop native communication services for aboriginal and non-aboriginal audience in the province of Manitoba. Its programming is broadcast in Native (Cree, Ojibway...) and English languages. Its programming is to preserve the native languages through the productions of radio that inform and entertain native audience in their own languages; to preserve native culture, customs and traditions with radio programs that demonstrates and celebrates traditional legends, crafts and lifestyles.

NCI is the operator of CINC-FM Thompson, MB and its rebroadcasting stations at the following locations: Berens River, Bloodvein, Brandon, Brochet, Camperville, Churchill, Cormorant, Cranberry Portage, Cross Lake, Dauphin River, Duck Bay, Easterville, Fairford, Fox Lake, Garden Hill, Gillam, God's Lake Narrows, God's River, Grand Rapids, Ilford, Jackhead, Lac Brochet, Leaf Rapids, Little Grand Rapids, Lynn Lake, Moose Lake, Nelson House, Norway House, Oxford House, Pauingassi, Peguis, Pelican Rapids, Pikwitonei, Poplar River, Pukatawagan, Red Sucker Lake, Shamattawa, Sherridon, Snow Lake, South Indian Lake, Split Lake, Swan River, St. Theresa Point, Tadoule Lake, The Pas, Thicket Portage, Wabowden, Waterhen, Winnipeg/Selkirk. The above rebroadcasters carry exclusively the programming of CINC-FM Thompson produced from the Thompson and Winnipeg network studios. The broadcast schedule of CINC-FM is 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

I trust you will find the above in order and satisfactory. Should the Commission require any further information, please contact the undersigned.

Yours truly,

Hoa Bui, C.E.T.
