About Nursing & Allied Health Collection

Nursing & Allied Health Collection provides access to about 400 fulltext journals, including over 300 peer-reviewed publications, in the areas of nursing, biomedicine, health sciences, consumer health and allied health disciplines. The journals are also indexed in CINAHL. Coverage varies, but fulltext goes back as far as 1975 for some titles. Fulltext for some titles is delayed for 6 months to 1 year.

To Start: Go to www.library.mun.ca/hsl

On-Campus users: Click on the Health Databases link. Then click on the Nursing & Allied Health Collection link.

Off-Campus users: Click on the Off-Campus Login button on the top right corner of the Health Databases (MUN users page). Enter your ID and Pin, then click on the Nursing & Allied Health Collection link.
