

Yvette Mongeon, Vice-President

Ms. Yvette Mongeon was appointed Vice-President, Investigations Branch, Public Service Commission of Canada, in April 2004.

After more than 25 years of service, Ms. Mongeon has solid experience with the federal public service. Throughout her career, she has held several management positions which include, most recently, Director General of Language Training Canada, where she was responsible for the implementation of the National Action Plan on Official Languages. Previously, she was Regional Director General of Health Promotion at Health Canada in Quebec, where she managed a number of important national social programs such as: the National Children's Agenda; the Canadian Diabetes Program; the Aboriginal Head Start Program; the AIDS Prevention Program; she was also responsible for the negotiation of federal-provincial protocols. She was also Director of Citizenship Registration with Citizenship and Immigration Canada; and has held a number of management positions with Heritage Canada, including the management of the Canadian Multiculturalism Program, the Human Rights Program, the Canadian Literacy Program, and the Official Languages Program.

Ms. Mongeon has a Masters degree in Canadian-American Studies and a B.A. in Economics and History, and is an avid swimmer and golfer. She has a stepdaughter and sponsors several children in developing countries.