

I strongly suggest the review board take a long hard look at Saskatchewan Labour Standards rules and regulations. As a person who has lived in Ontario, BC, Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba and handled payroll in those provinces there is no province I would rather be an employee than Saskatchewan. In my opinion, Saskatchewan is truly a province who looks after all employee issues including work life balance.

Ruth Clark