

I believe that many restaurants do not pay overtime hours for their workers. This should be addressed.

Man Education and training should be making every effort to involve First Nations in the labour force through training and incentive opportunities for employers and employees.

Thanks

Roger Geeves