

Creating a Children's Book Summary Sheet

Now that you have finished your children's book, take some time to answer these questions about what you have learned.

What are three things you learned about writing and illustrating a children's book?

What did you think was the hardest part of creating a children's book? Why?

What was the most interesting and fun part of creating a children's book? Why?

Would you like to write or illustrate children's books for a living? Why or why not?
