Minister's Introduction

The NWT Help Directory is a guide to the agencies and organizations that provide health and social services across the Northwest Territories.

The directory shows at a glance what services are available and who is involved in each community across the Northwest Territories. I am pleased to point out that this 1998/99 version includes over 1000 entries.

The directory was updated by the Health and Wellness Promotion unit of the Population Health Division in the Department of Health and Social Services. Each agency listed receives a copy of the directory. The directory is also distributed, on request, free of charge to individuals, groups, agencies and governments throughout the Northwest Territories. The organization of this year's listings reflects changes in service delivery due to Community Empowerment initiatives and changes within the Department of Health and Social Services.

Prevention is the key to handling many of today's health and social problems. Action now can prevent future problems. This NWT Help Directory can be used as a tool to directing your actions.

Whether you are seeking help for yourself or providing services to others, I hope you will find this seventh edition of the NWT Help Directory useful.

Sincerely,

Kelvin Ng

This Directory is a good “one stop shop” for phone numbers and addresses I need.

Yes No

This Directory gives me a good idea of the places I can go for help in my community.

Yes No

This Directory helps me see what help is available in other communities.

Yes No

I use the Index very often.

Yes No

The Index could be dropped without affecting the use of the Directory.
