

Mi'kmaq Sante' Mawio'mi — Traditional Mi'kmaw Leadership

MI'KMAQ HISTORY MONTH OCTOBER 2006

The Mi'kmaq Grand Council is the traditional political structure of the peoples living in Mi'kma'ki. Each of the seven Districts of Mi'kma'ki has a District Chief who was elected from the tribal Chiefs from that District. One of the District Chiefs was appointed Grand Chief.

The Eight Pointed Star

is an adaptation of the original Seven Pointed Star which was the historical emblem of the Seven Districts of the Mi'kmaq nation. The Eighth point was added to represent the Crown after the signing of treaties with Britain.

The Grand Council Medals

were instated in 1842 by Joseph Howe included in the "Act for the Instruction and Permanent Settlement of Indians" where, amongst other agreements, it states that the Chief and Keptins (captains) are to receive one medal each, every 3 years.

The Sante' Mawio'mi Flag

or Grand Council Flag, is commonly referred to as the Mi'kmaw Nation Flag. It has a White background, Red Cross, Sun, and Moon.

Wape'k (White) - Denotes the purity of Creation.

Mekwe'k Klujjiewey (Red Cross) - Mankind and Infinity (four directions)

Na'ku'set (Sun) - Forces of the day

Tepknuset (Moon) - Forces of the night
