

3.13 Gifts and Awards

A gift bank service to promote Nova Scotian artisans and distributors is provided to government departments, agencies, boards, and commissions by the Protocol Office. This service is to be utilized by government officials for presentation of gifts to dignitaries, for trade missions or conferences, or as an award for a special service.

A gift bank price list and instructions regarding purchase are available on the government intranet (iweb.gov.ns.ca/prot) or by contacting the Protocol Office.
