

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements

Highlights

Introduction

Population Characteristics

The senior population
Seniors in Canada in an international context
More very old seniors
Senior women in the majority
Seniors in the provinces/territories
Urban/rural distribution of seniors
Senior migrants
Senior immigrants
Aboriginal seniors
Language characteristics of seniors
Seniors with disabilities
Senior veterans

Living Arrangements and Family Status

Most seniors in private households
Seniors living in an institution
Living arrangements of seniors with disabilities
Family status of seniors in private households
Seniors living alone
Family status of seniors across the country
Family status of immigrant seniors
Seniors with children
Seniors with grandchildren
Seniors with social support in their homes

Housing and Household Facilities

Homeownership of seniors
More mortgage-free senior homeowners
The homes of seniors needing repairs
Living space in the homes of seniors
Household amenities in the homes of seniors

Vehicle ownership of seniors
Special housing facilities for seniors with disabilities

Health

Increasing life expectancy among seniors
Disability-free life expectancy
Mortality rates among seniors down
Trends in the main causes of death among seniors
Types of cancer among seniors
Suicide rates among seniors
The perceived health of seniors
Seniors with chronic health conditions
Activity limitations of seniors
Seniors with dementia
Seniors with problems with cognition
Seniors experiencing chronic pain
Seniors suffering injuries
Seniors with vision problems
Seniors with hearing problems
Seniors consulting with health-care professionals
Hospitalization of seniors
Seniors taking medication
Seniors who smoke
Alcohol use among seniors

Education

Educational attainment of seniors
Literacy problems among seniors

Labour Force Characteristics

Most seniors retired
Employment of seniors
Decline in employment among men aged 55 to 64
Part-time work
Self-employed seniors
Occupational distribution of employed seniors
Unemployment among seniors
Unpaid work

Income and Expenditures

Average income of seniors
Incomes of elderly families
Incomes of unattached seniors
Income of seniors in the provinces
Income from Old Age Security payments
Income from Canada/Quebec Pension Plans
Government income security programs for seniors
Income from private employment-related retirement pensions
Income from Registered Retirement Savings Plans
Other investment income of seniors
Employment income of seniors

Conclusion

Low income among seniors
Low income and family status among seniors
Non-money income factors and low income among seniors
Expenditures of seniors

Senior Lifestyles

Leisure time of seniors
Seniors watching television
Time seniors spend socializing
Social activities of seniors in institutions
Active leisure activities of seniors
Physical activity of seniors
Volunteer work
Religious activity of seniors
Travel of seniors
Travel restrictions among seniors with disabilities
Time seniors spend on personal care
Criminal victimization and the fear of crime among seniors
Computer literacy among seniors
Ownership of other electronic equipment