(Texte français à la page 5-13)

No	Command	Given by	Execution	Observations
1			The CPO2 marches to and halts three paces in front of the position to be occupied by the "A" Coy marker.	The companies regroup in the sector which is appointed to them and the cadets assume the position "stand easy"
2	MARKERS	CPO2	The company markers come to attention and march onto the parade square. The "A" Coy marker halts three paces in front of and facing the CPO2. The remainders halts and dress on the left of that marker at shoulder dressing. Upon completion of dressing, they look to the front in succession from the right.	Companies adopt the stand at ease position. Standard pauses are observed between drill movements.
3	MARKERS – NUMBER	CPO2	The markers number consecutively from right to left.
4	NO. 1 RIGHT, REMAINDER LEFT – TURN	CPO2	"A" Coy marker turns right, the remainder turn left.	If no mark is observable on the ground the CPO2 must indicate the number of steps which each guide must make.
5	NO. 1 STAND FAST, REMAINDER QUICK – MARCH	CPO2	"A" Coy marker stands fast, the remainder march the required distance and halt.
6	NO. 1 STAND FAST, REMAINDER ABOUT – TURN	CPO2	"A" Coy marker stands fast, the remainder about turn and cover off the "A" Coy marker.	The CPO2 marches out six paces in front of "A" Coy marker, halts, turns about and ensures the markers are covered off.
7	MARKERS – STEADY	CPO2	The markers stand fast.

No	Command	Given by	Execution	Observations
8	MARKERS, LEFT – TURN	CPO2	The markers turn left.	This order places the markers in line. The CPO2 marches to a position 15 paces in front and center of where the Ship's company will be formed.
