F. Security

The CWB reserves the right to request that a company post security established by the CWB, in the form of an irrevocable Letter of Credit. This security is required to cover any risk to the CWB that may affect pool accounts, to cover all advance deductions, freight adjustment factors or deferred deposit monies from producer cash tickets as well as cover any value due the CWB from delivery and sales invoices.

Security is tendered after the CWB establishes the amount of security required. Do not tender security until the CWB notifies you of the required amount and term of coverage.

A sample copy of a Letter of Credit is attached.

G. Cash purchase ticket (payment to farmers)

The CWB Regulations and agency agreements require that as CWB agents, companies are to issue farmers a cash purchase ticket when settling for delivery of CWB grain. Companies are to provide the CWB with a copy of their cash purchase ticket in order to ascertain that the information contained on it conforms to required reporting information.

A sample copy of a cash ticket is attached.
