

The National Arts Centre Orchestra and
Jeunesses Musicales of Canada present

Kinder concerts

2006 - 2007

NATIONAL ARTS CENTRE
ORCHESTRA

JEUNESSES
MUSICALES
CANADA

Join us at the NAC for 4 terrific shows for young children. Instruments, animation and storytelling capture youngsters' imaginations, providing fun and discovery of the endless wonders of music!

New in 2006-07:

Two English performances of each show

Due to the popularity of this series, the NAC Orchestra has added a second performance of each show in English.

English performances:

11:00 – recommended for ages 3 to 6

13:30 – recommended for ages 5 to 8

French performance:

15:00 – recommended for ages 5 to 8

Skarazula

Sunday, November 19, 2006

Steve Grenier, François Rainville, François Perron

– playing everything from medieval fiddle to Irish flute, tromba marina and even an oud!

Come on an adventure to medieval Europe with the members of Skarazula! Travel with them along the roads of France, Spain, Italy, Turkey, the countries of Eastern Europe... You'll hear songs in many different languages and discover some rather peculiar instruments. A musical voyage to delight

A Cello For Chelsea

Sunday, February 4, 2007

Written, composed, arranged and performed by

Margaret Munro Tobolowska

(cellist with the NAC Orchestra)

When Chelsea, a shy young girl with a vivid imagination, meets Chester the Cello, she discovers her musical talent and her love of the cello! Enjoy the sound of this wonderful instrument as you accompany Margaret, Chelsea and Chester on their inspirational journey. A musical story for the young and the young at heart!

The French performance on this date is "Le musicien des glaces". See reverse for details.

I Tromboni

Sunday, April 1, 2007

Jim Tranquilla, Neal Bennett, Kenneth Pearce, Greg Passmore, Volkan Mutaf – trombone

Do you know the many sounds a trombone can make? Did you know that music can paint a picture as well as tell a story? With the I Tromboni Quintet, you'll discover a whole range of musical styles and genres: jazz, pop, world, chamber and orchestra music. Don't miss this magical visit to the world of brass!

Le Dixieband, A Journey to Dixieland

Sunday, June 10, 2007

Luc Bouchard, banjo • Aron Doyle, trumpet
Bruno Lamarche, clarinet • Jean Sabourin, sousaphone
Jeffery Simons, drums • Richard Turcotte, trombone

With Marielle Grenier, performer/singer

Le Dixieband brings electrifying new vitality to the redhot strains and hard-driving rhythms of traditional New Orleans jazz. In song, dance and dream, a lively old lady called Miss New Orleans recalls her marvellous memories of the Blues, the Charleston, the Shimmy and the Scat. A magical, rhythmic show that will educate and enchant the whole family!

Subscribe to all 4 Kinderconcerts

Adults: $38 • Children: $19

Family pass: $96 (for any combination of adults and children up to 4 people)

- Save 20% off the price of single tickets.
- Guarantee your seats for these sold-out shows.
- Enjoy free ticket exchanges to any other NAC 2006-07 subscription season performance including TD Canada Trust Young People's Concerts or Family Theatre.

All concerts held in the Panorama Room, National Arts Centre. Bring a comfy cushion with you because seating is on the floor.

Ticket Policy: National Arts Centre policy requires that every person have a ticket in order to be admitted to a performance. The policy applies to everyone, including children and infants. Limited seating available.

Subscribing is easy!

By phone: 613.947.7000, ext. 620

In person: NAC Subscription Office

Monday to Saturday 10:00 – 21:00 through June 30, 2006.

After July 2, Monday to Friday, 10:00 to 18:00.

Jeunesses Musicales of Canada wishes to thank

Desjardins

NATIONAL ARTS CENTRE
CENTRE NATIONAL DES ARTS