Paul Hennig
Director of Production Operations

Paul Hennig joined the NAC in 1994 as Technical Administrator. He became Production Administrator and later Director of Production Operations after a restructuring of the Production Department in 1996. As Director of Production Operations Mr. Hennig is responsible for the operation of the Production Department and for the development and up-keep of all of the NAC's production and performance facilities.

Mr. Hennig came to the NAC from the Manitoba Theatre Centre where he was Technical Director from 1988 to 1994. Prior to that he worked with J.V. Theatre Productions, a production company housed within the Calgary Centre for the Performing Arts (now the Epcor Centre).
