

The Court of Appeal of Alberta

Notice to the Profession

June 25th, 2002

Part D, paragraph 1, of the Consolidated Practice Directions of the Court of Appeal of Alberta is amended to read as follows:

“1. Reproduce authorities to be referred to for the Court, preferably in a joint book. Authorities may be reproduced from either hard-copy publications or electronic databases, subject to the following. If the Authority is reproduced from an electronic database,

- (a) the issuing court’s paragraph numbers, or the page numbers from a law report, must be in the printout;
- (b) in either the book of authorities or the factum, advise the court whether the case cited is reported; and if so, provide parallel citations for the same decision, and
- (c) the printout must preserve any formatting in the original judgment.”

The following is added to the end of Part C, paragraph 4, of the Consolidated Practice Directions:

“When referring to a case from an electronic database, provide a parallel reported citation, the neutral citation if available, and the electronic database citation in a recognized format. If a pinpoint reference is required, provide the paragraph number if available.”

This amendment is effective September 1, 2002.
