LICENSING INFORMATION

The Alberta Gaming and Liquor Commission (AGLC) is responsible for administering and regulating the gaming industry in Alberta, including the licensing of charitable gaming activities. Only charities or religious groups are licensed. All proceeds from the licensed activity must be used for charitable or religious activities.

To apply for a licence, the application form must be complete, and all required supporting documents must be submitted for review. The information must be correct and up-to-date. This will minimize delays in processing requests.

- Conducting a gaming event without a licence is a Criminal Code offence.
- All required Financial Reports must be up-to-date before new applications are processed.

The information you are providing on this application form is collected under the authority of the Gaming and Liquor Act, Gaming and Liquor Regulation, and the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIP) Act, section 33(c). The information is strictly for the use of the Alberta Gaming and Liquor Commission in assessing your eligibility.

Your personal information is protected by Alberta's FOIP Act and can be reviewed upon request. If you have any questions about the collection or use of the information, please contact:

Alberta Gaming and Liquor Commission
50 Corriveau Avenue
St. Albert, Alberta T8N 3T5
Telephone: 780-447-8600

LICENSING PROCESS

The AGLC Regulatory Division is responsible for reviewing applications, issuing gaming licences, and enforcing the Act, Regulation, policies, and terms and conditions. The AGLC must approve any changes to the approved licence or approved use of proceeds. Inspectors may visit gaming events to provide advice and information and to ensure that all requirements are being met, and/or conduct investigations of any alleged irregularities.

BASIC ELIGIBILITY - POLICY

A charitable or religious group is eligible for gaming licensing if the group is structured in a manner acceptable to the Board and can prove a record of active delivery of a charitable or religious program to the community.

1. To be eligible for gaming licensing, the applicant group must have:
 - a) a broad based volunteer membership which represents the community at large;
 - b) Alberta resident volunteer members who establish, maintain control of and deliver the group's programs;
 - c) 75% or more of its executive democratically chosen from its volunteer base (a maximum 25% of the group's executive may be appointed by an external entity);
 - d) no paid members, directors or officers;
 - e) programs that benefit a significant segment of the community, not member's self-interest;
 - f) a not-for profit objective;
 - g) groups applying for a licence for which licence fees are charged must be incorporated. Acceptable forms of incorporation are:
 - i) Societies Act (Alberta);
 - ii) Part 9 of the Companies Act;
 - iii) Part II of the Canada Corporations Act;
 - iv) Religious Societies Land Act;
 - v) Other Alberta statutes, approved by the Board;
 - vi) charter from a recognized international governing body (e.g., service club charter).
 - h) Applicants who are incorporated under any statute must have by-laws that upon dissolution of the applicant group, require any assets remaining after paying debts and liabilities to be:
 - i) disbursed to eligible charitable or religious groups or purposes; or
 - ii) transferred in trust to a municipality until such time as the assets can be transferred from the municipality to a charitable or religious group or purpose approved by the Board.
2. The applicant group must be able to prove a record of active delivery of its charitable or religious programs or services to the community.
 3. The applicant group must provide a written declaration or statement of the charitable community benefit provided by the programs or services the group delivers.
 4. A charitable community benefit is provided when a service or program is delivered to a significant segment of the community in one of the following areas:
 - a) Relief of the aged or disadvantaged;
 - b) Advancing education and learning; or
 - c) Provide help to the community which:
 - i) make improvements to the quality of health;
 - ii) support medical research;
 - iii) aid medical treatment programs;
 - iv) supply a facility for the community's use;
 - v) support eligible amateur sports; or
 - vi) contribute places for worship and other religious programs.
 5. The group's proposed use of gaming proceeds must be in accordance with the Board's use of gaming proceeds policy.
 6. Groups engaged in any commercial activity which generates income for the personal gain of the group's membership or others are ineligible for gaming licensing.
 7. Groups that charge fees for their programs or services for the purpose of generating a profit rather than on a cost-recovery basis are ineligible for gaming licensing.
 8. Groups whose application for licensing is under review by the Commission or groups already licensed by the Commission shall immediately advise the Commission in writing of any changes to:
 - a) The group's organizational structure;
 - b) The group's objectives or purpose;
 - c) The type of programs or services delivered by the group including changes to:
 - i) the intended recipients, participants or beneficiaries of its programs or services;
 - ii) the date and time of program and/or service delivery;
 - iii) the premises from which the program and/or service delivery is made; and
 - iv) for groups who operate a public facility, changes to the access policy or procedures to the facility for group members or for members of the public.

USE OF PROCEEDS

Gaming proceeds shall only be spent on charitable and religious purposes provided by the Commission.

Applicants specify the intended use of gaming proceeds on the application.

Note: The following use of proceeds must be requested using one of the following Commission forms:

- Travel Itinerary (LIC/GAM 5443)
- Request to use Gaming Proceeds to Pay Wages/ Salaries (LIC/GAM 5442)
- Request to Donate Proceeds Outside of Canada (LIC/GAM 5484)
- Request to Donate Proceeds Outside of Alberta but Within Canada (LIC/GAM 5502)

- Gaming proceeds shall only be used for Commission approved objects which are essential to the delivery of the group's charitable or religious programs.
- Gaming proceeds shall be used to support the group's overall objectives, programs and services as approved; and not solely to provide benefits to specific or select members of the group.
- Changes to the approved use of proceeds after the gaming licence is issued must be approved by the Regulatory Division prior to the disbursement of proceeds. Two executive members of the licensed group must sign the letter of request for the change in the use of proceeds.
- Disbursements of gaming proceeds shall be made within 24 months of receipt of the funds. Any extension of this period must have prior written approval of the Commission. All requests for an extension of this time period must include a supporting business plan. The business plan shall include the following:
 - a written explanation why the proceeds have to be accumulated beyond 24 months;
 - any other sources of revenues associated with the planned project or event;
 - a list of expenditures associated with the planned project or event; and
 - timelines for the anticipated disbursement of the accumulated proceeds.
- A use of proceeds not specifically accommodated in the Use of Proceeds policies is considered an ineligible use of proceeds.

FINANCIAL REPORTING

- Financial reports are required for each gaming licence (bingo, casino, pull-ticket, raffle) issued.
- Financial reports are mailed to the licensed group every 12 months or at the expiration of the licence.
- Completed reports with supporting documents shall be returned to the Commission within sixty (60) days. Failure to submit these reports or to comply with the terms and conditions of the licence may affect future licences.
- If a group has more than one active licence, they are encouraged to open a "Consolidated Gaming Account" for the expenditure of their gaming proceeds. The group will transfer these proceeds from their individual gaming accounts into this account. The benefits of this account are:

- cheques for approved use of proceeds are issued from one account; and
- easier tracking of proceeds available for distribution.

Contact the AGLC Financial Review Section at 1-800-272-8876 for more information.

GENERAL INFORMATION

- Organizations conducting a raffle with a total ticket value over $10,000, for the first time, may be required to establish a lawyer's trust account in the name of the ticket holders to secure all ticket revenue until all prizes have been paid in full.
- There is no limit on the total ticket value.
- Prizes must be listed on the application.
- Retail value of all prizes shall be at least 20% of the total ticket value. Expenses cannot exceed 30%.
- When the retail value of a merchandise prize exceeds $5,000, independent confirmation of the prize value must be provided. For example, a quote from the supplier. If the prize is used merchandise, two independent appraisals prepared by recognized or licensed appraisers must accompany the application. If the prize is a used vehicle, two certified appraisals and a vehicle inspection report must be provided.
- Other charities or religious groups may be paid a commission to sell tickets. They shall use the funds only for approved purposes. No other person or group may be paid to sell tickets.
- Raffle tickets can be sold for cash, certified cheque, money order or credit card voucher. These shall be made payable to the licensed group. If accepting non-certified cheques, the ticket stub cannot be included in any draws until the cheque clears the bank.
- Tickets cannot be sold or advertised outside Alberta.
- No raffle revenue may be spent until funds are available to pay for the prizes. This includes both raffle expenses and approved use of proceeds.
- Only direct expenses required to operate the raffle may be deducted from raffle revenue. Up to 5% of the gross revenue may be used for the indirect expenses of the raffle. This amount can be deposited in the licensee's general account. Groups may hire a registered raffle ticket manager. A copy of the contract must be provided to the AGLC.
- Raffle tickets shall not be sold to a person under the age of 18 years.
- Separate guidelines for sports drafts are available.
- Licence fees are required.
- Except for Bearer Ticket Draws, all raffle winners have one year from the date of the draw to claim their prize. The licensee shall secure or place in safekeeping unclaimed prizes for a period of one year from the date of the draw. If at that time the prize has still not been claimed, the prize or monies equivalent to the fair market value of the prize shall be donated to a charitable beneficiary approved by the Commission. Alternatively, with Commission approval, unclaimed prizes or monies of equivalent value may be donated to the licensee's own approved use of profits.
- Allow at least eight weeks for processing prior to printing deadline.
