LINK TO THE GOVERNMENT OF ALBERTA STRATEGIC BUSINESS PLAN

Starting with Today's Advantage, Tomorrow's Promise: Alberta's Vision for the Future, the Government of Alberta has a strategic policy framework linking long-term, medium-term and short-term plans. The alignment of the Ministry of Education's three-year business plan with the Government of Alberta's 20-year strategic plan, medium-term strategies, and three-year business plan ensures that the Ministry is contributing toward achieving the overall direction of government.

Government of Alberta 20-Year Strategic Plan

The Ministry of Education supports the achievement of the Government of Alberta's 20-Year Strategic Plan through strategies identified in this business plan, in particular the following pillar of that plan:

- Leading in Learning – focuses on making sure Albertans have the opportunities they need to learn, adapt and develop new knowledge and skills.

The Ministry of Education also supports the three other pillars: Unleashing Innovation, Competing in a Global Marketplace and Making Alberta the Best Place to Live, Work and Visit.

Government of Alberta Medium-Term Strategies

The Government of Alberta has Medium-Term Strategies to support the priorities of Albertans. The Ministry of Education supports many of these strategies and has direct responsibility for the following medium-term strategies, which will be implemented through the strategic priorities and strategies identified in the Ministry's 2005-08 business plan:

- Strategic Approach to K-12 Curriculum – focuses on ensuring that Alberta's students achieve their full potential and are well prepared for lifelong learning and global citizenship.
- Languages Initiative – focuses on ensuring that Albertans have the linguistic and cultural skills necessary to compete in the national and global markets and work place, including developing an adequate supply of qualified language teachers.
- Learning and Technology Policy Framework – focuses on providing direction, support and coordination for the effective use of technology to support learning delivery, knowledge and skill acquisition, learning system management, and research and innovation.
- Rural Development Strategy – focuses on providing a framework that will encourage sustained growth in rural Alberta and create opportunities to foster vibrant communities.
- Educating Albertans to Compete in a Global Marketplace – focuses on ensuring Alberta's basic education system has a strong international dimension.
- Strategy for Prevention of Family Violence and Bullying – focuses on the development of a new Provincial Response to Family Violence and Bullying, through community-based services for children and other family members, and works toward an Alberta free from family violence.

Government of Alberta 3-Year Business Plan

The Ministry of Education also ensures that its business plan is directly aligned with and supports Goal Two of the 2005-08 Government of Alberta Business Plan, which states:

- Albertans will be well prepared for lifelong learning and work.

In addition, the Ministry of Education supports other goals of the Government of Alberta Business Plan, including:

- Alberta will have a diversified and prosperous economy.
- Alberta's international competitiveness will be enhanced.
- Alberta's children and youth will be supported in reaching their potential.
- Albertans will be healthy.
- Albertans will be self-reliant and independent and those unable to provide for their basic needs will receive help.
- The well-being and self-reliance of Aboriginal communities and people will be improved.
- Alberta will have a financially stable, open and accountable government.
- Alberta will have strong and effective partnerships with local, provincial, national and international governments.

SIGNIFICANT OPPORTUNITIES AND CHALLENGES

The following opportunities and challenges have been identified as the key strategic issues that could impact the Ministry's ability to achieve its vision and goals. The Ministry of Education examines these significant opportunities and challenges to determine the strategic priorities and appropriate strategies that will prepare learners for the future and enhance their learning opportunities.

A dynamic global marketplace, the diverse needs of Alberta's students, and the necessity of ensuring programs, services and delivery modes are responsive to changing social, demographic and economic needs contribute to the increasing complexity of the education system. Combined with finite resources and increased public demand for choice, these forces create a demanding environment for the achievement of education system goals and outcomes.

- Readiness to Learn The readiness of children to learn when they start school is vital as we prepare young people to be lifelong learners in the 21st century. Those who are ready to learn benefit from all that school has to offer, both academically and socially. Children develop rapidly at different rates in their first few years of life. What children learn, how they learn and how much they learn depends on many factors, including cultural and environmental experiences. Alberta's education system promotes learning for all children. The learning environment must acknowledge children's diverse backgrounds, help children transition successfully and provide supports when necessary. What happens to children in their first few years of life has a profound influence on their relative success or failure in school and in life in general. A good start in life and school provides lasting benefits for every child.
- Curriculum Alberta must maintain a curriculum that is at the leading edge and that prepares students for a changing and demanding world. Alberta's centralized, high quality curriculum provides students with the knowledge and skills needed to create a positive future for themselves, their families and their communities. The curriculum outlines what students are expected to learn and be able to do, in all subjects and grades. It helps students achieve their individual potential. It helps them to be active and participating citizens who understand and respect the diversity of our many cultures, our traditions of the past and our potential for the future.
- Sustainability of the Education System Our education system not only shapes individual students' lives, it shapes the very nature of our society. Albertans are committed to ensuring that students have the learning opportunities they need to be active lifelong learners and contributing members of society. All education partners have a shared responsibility to find ways to sustain and build on our strong and vibrant education system. Each partner needs to help balance competing fiscal, human resource and policy priorities with rising public demand for choice, flexibility and adaptability.
- Public Values and Expectations Expectations for Alberta to have an education system that is among the best in the world will continue. Everyone – from parents to students, the community, business, government, teachers and administrators – has an important and cooperative role to play in public education. Albertans value learning opportunities and expect the education system to improve continuously, respond to diverse learner needs, be fiscally responsible and be accountable for results. Albertans believe that everything in the basic education system must start and end with children and youth. A strong education system values each and every individual, instills positive values and builds tolerance and respect.

Information and Communication Technology

Technology has given Albertans the capacity to access learning opportunities at any place, any time and in a variety of modes. Technology also is changing what students learn. Information and communications technology has been integrated into learning experiences to ensure students' competitiveness in a knowledge-based economy. Students must be prepared to understand, use and apply technologies in effective, efficient and ethical ways. There are ongoing expectations for technology to provide flexible learning opportunities and the education system must ensure that investment in technology yields the greatest benefits for our students.

Transitions

The process by which children and youth move into and through the education system and into adult roles is not always simple. Students experience change at every transition point in their school careers, typically beginning with the transition from Kindergarten to Grade 1 and ending with the move from high school to post-secondary/trades/apprenticeship programs or the world-of-work. Far too many young people struggle with high school completion. While there are no easy answers or quick solutions, it is important to share effective practices and successful models that schools are using for easing transitions and for helping students complete high school so that they are ready for further studies or entry into the workforce.

STRATEGIC PRIORITIES 2005-08

The Ministry, through its review of significant opportunities and challenges, has identified the following strategic priorities for 2005-08.

1. Leading in Learning and Skilled Workforce Initiative

Linkage: Goal 3

The four key pillars of the Government of Alberta Strategic Business Plan are: Leading in Learning; Unleashing Innovation; Competing in a Global Marketplace; and Making Alberta the Best Place to Live, Work and Visit. The Government of Alberta's new Leading in Learning and Skilled Workforce Initiative, which supports the four key pillars, is a collaborative partnership among government ministries, working together to ensure that an excellent learning system is available to meet the varying needs of Alberta learners of all ages and to meet the needs of a knowledge economy. The Ministry of Education, as a co-champion of this cross-ministry initiative, will work with partners and stakeholders to support Alberta's children and youth in fully reaching their potential.

2. Every Learner Succeeds

Linkage: Goals 1, 2, 3

In Alberta's classrooms, a rich and diverse mix of students have the opportunity to learn and succeed. Students should come to school well prepared and ready to learn. Within a safe, positive and caring environment, teachers use effective teaching practices to help students achieve high standards. All children should have access to quality programs but more needs to be done to address the needs of vulnerable and at-risk students to improve their chances to succeed in school and life. As students take responsibility for their own learning they need to be able to choose different pathways and different ways of learning. In turn, flexible programs and placements must be available for students to meet their needs and give them the best chance of success.

3. First Nations, Métis and Inuit Learner Success

Linkage: Goal 2

The Government of Alberta's Aboriginal Policy Initiative provides a mechanism for government ministries to work together to address matters facing Aboriginal communities and peoples in Alberta. As part of Education's commitment to the Aboriginal Policy Initiative, a key priority for the Ministry is to improve the educational success of First Nations, Inuit and Métis students in provincial schools. Through implementation of the First Nations, Métis and Inuit Education Policy Framework and recommendations from Alberta's Commission on Learning, the Ministry will work with Aboriginal learners and parents, Aboriginal communities and various education stakeholders to provide meaningful educational opportunities for First Nations, Métis and Inuit students in Alberta.

- 4. Working Effectively with Clients, Stakeholders and Partners
Linkage: Goal 3
- The Ministry of Education has developed a history of successful collaboration with educators, students, parents, other key education stakeholders, and partners. The Ministry will continue this approach to ensure that the education system is adaptable, innovative and responsive to the needs of Alberta students. Furthermore, the Ministry of Education, with its partners, will co-lead the Alberta Children and Youth Initiative and the Leading in Learning and Skilled Workforce Initiative. The Ministry of Education also will support the Aboriginal Policy Initiative and the Health Innovation and Wellness Initiative.
- 5. International and Pan-Canadian Initiatives
Linkage: Goal 3
- The key to keeping the education system strong and dynamic is to anticipate challenges and meet them with solid planning, innovation and a clear sense of direction. The Ministry of Education will continue this leadership role by strengthening intergovernmental relationships and enhancing educational opportunities beyond the province's borders, including work on a pan-Canadian assessment program, Western and Northern Canadian Protocol, an on-line learning portal, and implementing Alberta's International Education Strategy.

CORE BUSINESSES, GOALS, STRATEGIES & PERFORMANCE MEASURES

The Ministry of Education has identified three core businesses that are ongoing key responsibilities. Within each core business is a goal with specific outcomes that describe the end results the Ministry wants to achieve in fulfilling its mission. The Ministry also has identified strategies for 2005-08 that support the three ministry goals and the Government of Alberta Strategic Business Plan.

Performance measures indicate the degree of success the ministry has in achieving its goals and outcomes. In assessing progress, targets are considered met if the result is within five per cent of the target value, and targets are considered exceeded if the result is more than five per cent above the target value (except for provincial achievement tests).
