Queen's Golden Jubilee Scholarship

Visual Arts

Introduction

The Queen's Golden Jubilee Commemorative Scholarship for the Visual Arts was established by the Government of Alberta in 2002 to commemorate the Queen's accession to the throne and her service to the Commonwealth.

A Scholarship of $5,000 will be awarded annually to a student in the visual arts who shows extraordinary talent and potential and who demonstrates clear educational/training goals and objectives.

Eligibility Criteria

- For the purposes of this scholarship program the visual arts can include but are not restricted to: drawing, painting, sculpture, printmaking, clay, glass, wood, metal, fibre or any combination of these.
- Applicants must be residents of Alberta. A "resident" means a person lawfully entitled to be or remain in Canada, whose primary residence has been in Alberta for at least one year prior to applying, and who ordinarily lives in Alberta.
- Students must be 25 years of age or younger and entering any level of undergraduate studies or the equivalent in any accredited visual arts program.
- The scholarship will only be granted if the applicant can prove enrollment in an acceptable program of study or mentorship. If a successful applicant is not enrolled at the time of application, Alberta Community Development will hold funds on their behalf for no more than one year.

Assessment

Assessment for the Queen's Golden Jubilee Scholarship for the Visual Arts will be made by an expert jury. Adjudication may take up to four months. Only one award may be granted. All applicants, successful and unsuccessful, will be notified via mail. No jury comments will be provided.

The general assessment criteria are:

- Merit, such as artistic, educational and/or exposure
- Impact of the project
- Reasonableness of the budget
- Ability of the applicant to carry out the proposed project

The jury may consider and applicant's:

- Level of training and experience
- Performance and achievements, both past and present
- Personal objectives

Application Requirements

Eligible students must submit the following:

- One original and three copies of the entire application package:
 - A completed and signed application form.
 - A letter (maximum two pages) outlining their educational and artistic goals.
 - A detailed description of the course of study to be undertaken.
 - Applicants not already accepted into a proposed study program should provide a minimum of two alternate study program choices.
