Taxation Year Ending:

Complete this version of Schedule 5 if the corporation's taxation year commences on or after December 4, 2003 and the corporation is eligible to claim an amount under the Royalty Tax Deduction program. See Special Notice Vol. 5 No. 17 clarifying the rules and the Guide for details on successoring rules. If the corporation's taxation year commences before December 4, 2003, then use the AT176.9801 version of Schedule 5. Complete schedule 7 before completing this schedule. Use additional forms if necessary. Report all monetary values in dollars; DO NOT include cents. References to sections below are to those of the Alberta Corporate Tax Act.

Was there a change in control that created the immediately preceding taxation year end?

If "Yes", then all properties/pools change status by one succession at the beginning of the current taxation year. i.e. the unsuccessored pool becomes a first successor, first becomes second and the existing second is no longer eligible for the Royalty Tax Deduction.

* An amount can be entered in column C or column D but not in both.

If there was no change in control during the year, or if the pool was not transferred, this amount should equal the amount from last year's Column G.

** The amount in column D should equal the amount from the vendor's/predecessor's/corporation's Schedule 5 column G and this pool must be moved up to the next successor level.

Note that where there was a change in control of the corporation, for taxation years ending after December 4, 2002, pools should have been moved up by one successor level.
